Hackney NEU District Meeting 29th March

1. Fixed Business

Meeting heard from Daniel Kebede, NEU Senior Vice President, who spoke on the experience in school over the past year during the pandemic.

Positives included new members recruited to the union, new reps, action taken around Section 44. No high stakes testing or Ofsted. Daniel also outlined areas where it is important that we continue to fight.

Discussion followed with reports from schools.

2. Secretary's Report

a. Leaways - members are meeting now to discuss strike tomorrow. Leaways is a private school, owned by the Kedleston Group which belongs to the Brosnan family.

Rep has been dismissed. Management are considering forcing everyone to re-apply for their jobs. Discussing with the national union to launch a fight across the Kedleston Group, who do not want any union organisation in their schools.

Picket lines around Leaways - groups of six. Kevin Courtney and Diane Abbott planning to attend picket. Messages of support very important. Wednesday lunchtime online strike rally - Dave to circulate details.

b. Parkwood - balloting for action against redundancies. Indicative ballot result was 100% yes, with 100% turnout.

Proposal to contact Irish TUC. And for twitter storm.

3. Reminder of HNEU elections

Please consider standing for the committee.

4. NEU Conference

Delegates meeting tomorrow. Will report back from conference at next district meeting.

5. Executive members election

Ballot papers will be sent out 8th April, arriving about 10th. Info about who HNEU nominated with be sent out.

6. Membership

Next term need to update membership. Also need to ensure student teachers are joining.

7. Exclusions meeting

Report back given. Some progress being made. Permanent exclusions reducing, but still high level of short-term exclusions in the borough. Proposing that we invite the borough's exclusion reduction team to come to a meeting with Hackney NEU members.

8. Protest on Climate Change

HNEU supported protest last week.

9. Protest outside Geffrye Museum

Des spoke at meeting. Reported back on the anti-racist campaign and plans to move statue of Geffrye from outside the museum.

10. Health and Safety Reps

Appeal for more H&S reps in schools.

11. Agreed to give our support to opposition to Police and Crime Bill and the restrictions it brings on the right to protest.
